EXILES FROM MEXICO MAY WIN RIGHTS

Charges Against Political Outcasts Ordered Dropped
SOCIALIST PLAN DUE
Compulsory Education Under New President May Be Considered

(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, Monday, July 1. (AP)—A presidential order permitting political exiles to return to the country was announced today by President Lazaro Cardenas and his new cabinet.

A proposal for revision of the article of the constitution making "socialistic" education compulsory also might come before the ministry, it was reported.

Reliable sources said President Cardenas already has drawn up and signed an order instructing the federal attorney general and the department of military justice to outlaw all charges of rebellion still standing.

This would mean that a majority of those in exile in the United States and elsewhere would be able to return—among them Monseñor Leopoldo Ruiz y Flores, papal delegate now in San Antonio, Tex., and at least five bishops who have been expelled in recent years.

There was still no official intimation that the government intended to modify its policies toward the church or to change the socialistic education law, although unofficial sources predicted a general relaxation of the anti-church attitude.

CALLES TERMINED 'VERY WEAK' MAN

NEW YORK, Monday, July 1. (AP)—Plutarco Elias Calles, who withdrew from Mexican politics after his recent dispute with President Lazaro Cardenas, was termed today a "very weak man" by General Pablo Gonzalez, provisional president of Mexico in 1920.

"To us, Calles never has been the 'strong man,'" said Gonzalez. "Calles' moral and political death was accomplished during the electoral campaign carried around by candidate General Antonio I. Villarreal, last July."

POSTAL RECEIPTS SOAR!

Year's Gain Passes 7 Per Cent

Santa Ana postal receipts went on a skyrocket ride this year. Taking off on July 1, last year, they shot upward until they soared $12,783.81 above the mark for the previous fiscal year.

The increase was better than 7 per cent.

Postmaster T. E. Stephenson announced the total for the fiscal year ending June 30 was $182,490.60. Last year the total was $149,706.79.

Looking at the figures for the past six months, Mr. Stephenson reported that this period also

Bootleggers Hoping for New Lease on Life, Warned Here

If the old-time prohibition bootlegger thinks he is going to get a hold in Santa Ana and Orange county again, he has the surprise of his life awaiting him. So said Chief of Police Floyd W. Howard and Sheriff Logan Jackson today, commenting on the fears of some persons that the 80-cents-per-gallon state tax on hard liquor, effective today, might serve as an encouragement to bootleggers to resume operations because it will raise the price of so-called good liquor.

Both Chief Howard and Sheriff Jackson said they were cognizant of impending danger and that they had strengthened their forces to nip illicit booze business in the bud.

Weather Man Likes 'Cool Weather' Slogan

Even the weather man fell for that slogan of Howard Wood, chamber of commerce secretary.

On Friday Mr. Wood suggested that Santa Ana folk broadcast the slogan, "It's Always Cool in Santa Ana." Pretty soon everyone will be talking about how pleasant our climate is, he pointed out.

The idea worked. It worked so well that the weather man cooperated today by sending rain—the first July rain in 25 years.

COAL ACTION IS RUSHED

Postponement Of Strike Lends Speed To Plan Regulating Mining

WASHINGTON, Monday, July 1. (AP)—With a strike call to bituminous coal miners postponed for another 30 days, backers of the Guffey bill devoted themselves today to obtaining quick action on this measure to regulate the industry with a "little NRA."

The bill is expected to emerge from the house ways and means committee some time this week.

The United Mine Workers contend it would stabilize the industry and permit employers to comply with the U. M. W. demands for a 30-hour week and a 10 per cent pay rise.

John L. Lewis, president of the union, called off a strike, scheduled for this morning. Lewis had issued the strike call Saturday, but when the government intervened, he postponed it 30 days, offering to extend present wages and hours for that period.

PICKETING OF S. F. BOAT CONTINUES

SAN FRANCISCO, Monday, July 1. (AP)—While new strike threats by bay and river bargemen disturbed San Francisco waterfront circles, picketing of the steamer Point Clear continued here today.

STORE LOOTED OF $95.60

Burglars last night looted the Continental Market at Seventeenth and Main streets of $95.60 in cash. Officers who investigated believe the burglar must have hidden in the store before it closed, since no evidence could be found which would lead them to believe an entry had been forced.

The cash was hidden behind canned goods on the shelves in the store room. Three caches of money were found by the burglar who missed three other hiding places, approximately $80 being overlooked. Exit from the market apparently was made through the rear door.

PEIPING, Monday, July 1. (AP)—Loyal Chinese forces converged today on Tungchow, site of the American Board mission schools and home of a score of American missionaries, in a drive against mutinous Manchurian soldiers.

Martial law was declared in the city. A price was put on the head of General Pai Chien-Wu.

TAX FAILINGS AT NEW LOW

County Delinquency To Be only 8 Per Cent, Official States

Orange county's tax delinquency on real property for the year 1934-35 will not exceed 8 per cent, according to figures available today at the office of Tax Collector John Lamb. At noon Saturday the delinquency was 8.56 per cent, but payments in the mail for Saturday and today, when entered in the books, will bring the delinquency down to 8 per cent or less, Mr. Lamb said.

At the beginning of the fiscal year the tax collector was charged with $4,065,499.87 for collection. The amount collected when the office closed Saturday was $3,691,472.23.

Mr. Lamb said this year's delinquency is the lowest in county history, well under the margin of 10 per cent allowed by the board of supervisors last year in making up the county budget. With the closing of the tax books Saturday, all delinquent taxes will be payable at the office of the county auditor, to whom the books will be turned over.

Mr. Lamb said there will be no auction of tax delinquent property to the state this year. All property on which taxes have been delinquent for five years will be deeded to the state to be held for two more years, allowing additional time for redemption.

Closing his books for the fiscal year 1934-35, County Assessor James Sleeper announced today that his collection of personal property taxes for the year 1935 are $102,115.81 higher than they were for 1934.

In 1934 Mr. Sleeper's office collected $399,885.56. This year collections totalled $502,001.37. Mr. Sleeper said that Huntington Beach oil production and oil field equipment played a large part in the increased payments this year.

Word was received here today that City Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson has been elected California director to the national convention of the National Education association now being held in Denver, Colo. The election took place at the convention and is for a term of two years.

Mr. Henderson replaces J. R. Crook of Northern California. It is the first time Mr. Henderson has held an office in the national association. In 1930, however, he was president of the California Teachers' association.

Bribery charges were hurled during the battle in the legislature over the bill allowing whippstock drilling from Standard Oil property along the Huntington Beach bluffs. Governor Merriam has not yet signed the bill, but has called a hearing for July 10 at which arguments pro and con will be heard.

Members of the board of supervisors held their first session today as a board of equalization. Board members met promptly at noon and accepted the assessor's books and adjourned.

Requests for tax assessment hearings before the board will be filed with the county clerk, and hearings will be held daily for the next 12 days when the supervisors will adjourn as a board of equalization until next year.

County's June Wedding Record Passed—By One! Last year's record for June weddings was broken by the narrow margin of one license this year, according to County Clerk J. M. Backs. When his office closed at noon Saturday, 433 licenses had been issued for the month. In June, 1934, there were 432 licenses issued. Last month's total brings the number of licenses issued to date this year up to 1888, or 129 under the total of 2017 issued during the first six months of 1934.

Supervisors Take Stand Agree Electors Must Decide On Relief Problem Supervisors of all counties in the state will back up the federal and state relief program as far as the laws of California permit, but any cooperation beyond the law's provisions will have to be by vote of the electors.

This, according to Supervisor William C. Jerome, was the edict of a conference of the welfare committee and executive and legislative committees of the state supervisors' association, held last Thursday in San Francisco.

Supervisor Jerome, who represented Orange county at the conference, said it was agreed the 58 counties would stand firm against increasing the tax burden of their people, even for relief work, without first submitting the proposal to the voters.

No Tax Increase Due Commenting on the tangled situation that has arisen through a shift in the federal relief plan, Supervisor Jerome said today that (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

Valuing his estate at "more than $10,000," the will of the late James Irvine Jr., superintendent of the Irvine ranch, was filed for probate in superior court today. In a brief document he left his entire estate to his widow, Mrs. Athalie Irvine, whom he named executrix.

More than 60 years ago "Charley" Smith and Ella Dunham went to school together back in Michigan. "Charley" was a bashful fellow but the charming Ella caught his eye, and it soon became a habit for them to walk home from school together. Today Charley, now known as Charles H. Smith, and Ella were married in Santa Ana.

According to friends of the couple, who accompanied them here today, it was "Charley's bashfulness" that caused the 60-year postponement of the romance. It was responsible for Ella becoming Mrs. Ella Hogan and for Mr. Smith taking unto himself another wife.

Wed For Spite Friends said that when "Uncle Charley's" bashfulness kept him from proposing back in the days of their very early 20's, he drifted away from town, and Ella, in a fit of pique, married another man.

When Charley heard his first sweetheart had married he, too, became engaged and finally wed.

With the youthful romance apparently shattered, the two drifted apart and had no word from each other until four years ago when Mrs. Hogan, then a widow, came to Los Angeles. By accident she met Mr. Smith, for many years a widower, who was and still is a night watchman for the Los Angeles Bureau of Light and Power.

The couple will be at home after today at the bridegroom's home, 3824 Fortuna avenue, in Los Angeles.

More Than Eight Billion Will Be Spent by U.S. During 1936

WASHINGTON, Monday, July 1. (AP)—The federal government started a new fiscal year today figuring on spending $8,520,000,000, of which $4,582,000,000 would be used for "recovery and relief."

The estimates are President Roosevelt's. He expects the treasury to collect $3,991,000,000. That would mean a deficit of $4,529,000,000 for the year.

Public Debt 'Shy' The public debt as the 1935 fiscal year ended last night amounted to more than $28,665,000,000. It had not, however, reached the $31,000,000,000 total the president figured on more than a year ago.

Should the government spend $8,520,000,000 this year a new peace-time record for a single year would be established. It would jump above the peak set last year—which was more than $7,258,217,000.

Nuisance Taxes Help In financing this huge outlay, Mr. Roosevelt counted in part on extension of the $500,000,000 of "nuisance" taxes which were voted by congress last week. No other taxes were contemplated when he submitted his budget message in January. Since then, however, he has asked for new taxes on wealth.

The plan is to push the tax-the-wealth levies through by late August if possible. It was estimated the taxes would amount to $340,000,000 annually.

ANTI-HOLDING COMPANIES ACT LOSES

Bitter Fight Climaxed As House Turns Down President's Plea PASSED IN SENATE Measure Is Referred To Conference To Adjust Differences

WASHINGTON, Monday, July 1. (AP)—President Roosevelt's request for legislation to abolish "unnecessary" utility holding companies by 1942 was turned down today by the house.

Climaxing one of the most bitter legislative disputes in recent years, the vote was studied for its reflection of the president's present control over the house.

It was not a straight out test, however, as no roll call vote was taken. Administration supporters contended more votes for the president would have been obtained if a record had been kept.

The vote was on whether to adopt the senate provision to eliminate in seven years holding companies considered by the securities commission to be "unnecessary."

That carried in the senate by a one-vote margin. The house interstate commerce committee voted instead to give the securities commission discretionary authority.

After final passage of the utilities bill, the fight over the "death sentence" provision will be transferred to a conference committee to adjust differences between the senate and the house.

There it may either be rejected or retained.

The vote was 216 to 146 against the president's wishes.

After the house had refused his request for the legislation, President Roosevelt went to work in an effort to win by a roll call vote tomorrow.

BUILDING FOR FIRST HALF OF YEAR HERE SHOWS HUGE GAIN

PERMITS SIX TIMES OVER 1924 TOTAL

June Figures Surpass Same Month Of Last Year By $20,000

Building permit totals for the first six months of 1935 released today by Building Inspector Sam Preble were nearly six times greater than the total for the same period last year.

Valuation of permits granted during the first half of the present year totaled $680,431. The total for the same period in 1934 was $152,648.

June this year, though small in comparison with totals for other months, topped June of last year by more than $20,000. Last month there were 38 building permits issued with a total valuation of $29,236. During June of 1934, there were 27 permits issued with a total valuation of $9,201.

Included in the permits issued during the last six months were 34 permits to construct single residences; 153 to make alterations to homes; 131 to re-roof residences; 19 to build advertising panels; two for construction of schools; one for construction of a new city hall; three for poultry houses; six for construction of business buildings; and two for construction of service stations.

During the month just closed, there were five permits granted for construction of residences, 15 for alterations, 12 re-roofing permits, one for an advertising panel, two for business buildings, and two for poultry houses.

Tot Who Took Her First Swim Alone Is In Movies Now

When Gloria Joan Richardson, 18 month old, swam 60 feet at Newport harbor last Wednesday, she really started going places. Now she is in the movies, it was learned today.

It was Gloria's first swim, and so yesterday the Universal News Reel cameras were on the job to see her do it all over again. Gloria is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, Orange.

Edward Hall, publicity committee chairman for the chamber of commerce, reported Gloria's movie success today. He also said that another news reel showing Santa Ana children on a miniature train at Irvine park will be shown here July 7 and 8.

EXTENSION FOR STREET SEEN

Extension of South Main street to Corona Del Mar may start about September 1. Enough men to launch the grading work should be available then through the State Emergency Relief Administration. This was the news brought to the board of directors of the chamber of commerce at a meeting this noon in James' cafe by County Highway Superintendent Nat Neff. He said the state highway commission would accept the road after it was graded.

Edward Hall, publicity committee chairman, urged the value of extending Santa Ana boulevard to Irvine, and said he believed indorsement of the project by various groups would speed action on it. The matter of the Main street extension, and the proposed project for changing the name of Manchester boulevard to Santa Ana boulevard, were referred to Mr. Hall's committee.

Mr. Hall also was authorized to attend a meeting in James' cafe tomorrow noon, at which V. D. Johnson, county publicity chairman, will discuss the proposed county advertising budget.

MAJOR HEALEY FOUND DEAD

Major Daniel M. Healey, 37, of the California National Guard, close friend of the late Brig. Gen. Seth E. Howard and former commander of St. Catherine's Military Academy at Anaheim, was found dead yesterday, a victim of carbon monoxide fumes. His body was discovered in his parked automobile a short distance from his home at 535 West 116th street, Los Angeles.

According to his widow, Mrs. Mary Healey, he had been despondent over financial reverses in connection with a military academy he had opened after resigning from St. Catherine's Academy in Anaheim. The sudden death of General Howard also had been a shock to him, she said.

Major Healey organized the military department of St. Catherine's Military Academy in Anaheim in 1923, and was instructor there until last September when he planned to open an academy in Arizona.

Besides his widow he leaves a 14-year-old son, Jack. Plans for a military funeral are being arranged by the L. F. Uttermortuary, 10625 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

NEW AIDE FOR Y. M. C. A. HERE

Herbert Thomas, Los Angeles graduate of Whittier college, became associate secretary today of the Young Men's Christian Association of Santa Ana, where he will specialize in boys' work, according to General Secretary Ralph Smedley.

Mr. Thomas comes to Santa Ana after a year's special training at the Hollenbeck Heights Y. M. C. A. in Los Angeles, where he was a leader in boys' activities. He will serve as assistant to D. H. Tibbals.

The new staff member spent four years at Whittier college, and in his senior year was assigned to field work at the Pasadena Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Thomas will assume charge of several of the "Y" gymnasium classes, including swimming instruction in which he will be assisted by Harris Warren, Santa Ana Junior college student.

GARBAGE LAW FACING TEST

Orange county's garbage ordinance, prohibiting the shipping in of garbage from outside the county or the feeding of such garbage to hogs, is facing its first test in court.

Immediately after the ordinance became effective this morning, Charles J. Lyons, operator of a hog ranch in northern Orange county, was arrested and booked at the county jail charged with importing garbage. Immediately his attorney, Charles Swanner, filed an application in superior court for a writ of habeas corpus. The petition was signed by Presiding Judge James L. Allen and made returnable July 8 at 10 a. m. Pending hearing on the petition, Mr. Lyons was ordered released from custody on his own recognizance.

In his petition for the writ, Mr. Swanner charges the ordinance is discriminatory against persons in the business of hauling garbage into the county and in favor of those who haul in the county. Mr. Lyons has the contract to use garbage from Beverly Hills as feed for his hogs.

According to Assistant District Attorney William Menton, the ordinance which prohibits both the importation of garbage into the county and the feeding of it to hogs was approved last February as a safety measure in prevention of hoof-and-mouth disease. The last epidemic of this disease here, he said, was traced directly to the feeding of imported garbage to hogs.

The ordinance was approved last February but was delayed in becoming effective until today to give hog ranch operators an opportunity to clear up existing contracts for outside garbage.

members of the Orange county board of supervisors for that in spite of the fact that they will have to increase this year's budget to care for the return of 600 so-called employables to the county welfare rolls, meet increases in old age pensions and provide dental and medical care, this probably can be done without a marked increase in taxes, which will not be able to meet successive costs for materials in matching the new federal works program without the full cooperation of all other public agencies in the county.

On Friday, representative of the state supervisors' association met with Frank Y. McLaughlin, state emergency relief administrator; Max Lewis, field representative for the relief administration; Roy Pilling, director of L.A.C.R.A., and State Director Stollern of the National Reemployment Service. McLaughlin told them his force is working out the new work relief program as rapidly as possible, and he expects to outline the completed program next Friday at a meeting to be held in San Diego. By that date, he said, he will have returned from Salt Lake City, where a conference of all western federal works directors is scheduled for this week.

$200,000,000 to State
He informed the supervisors that $200,000,000 had been allocated to California on the basis of a case load of 192,500 persons. The money had been allocated on the basis of $1040 per year per man, the allocation to include the cost of material and overhead.

$750 Per Man
There will be approximately $131,000,000 to be handled in direct work relief, Mr. McLaughlin said, with 154,000 cases to be cared for under the program. The administration will attempt to work out a program whereby each man will actually receive $750 for his year's work with an additional $100 per year per man being allowed for material.

Federal representatives are asking all political subdivisions of the counties to contribute 20 per cent, or approximately $170 per man employed. Supervisor Jerome said that had this program been submitted in January, it would not have been a difficult matter to work out the program, but at present the cities and school districts have practically completed their budgets for the new fiscal year and the big question is where will the more than $500,000 required for the program in Orange county come from.

SIGN TO DIRECT TOURISTS THROUGH COUNTY CITRUS AREA

There will be a sign at Serra to direct tourist traffic through Orange county's citrus area as the travelers return from the San Diego exposition. This was promised today by W. E. Baker, representing the chamber of commerce. He said prospects are bright for a state highway commission sign and that he was sure there will be one erected.

Plans also are being completed whereby exposition visitors will be taken on tours of Orange county packing houses. Juice machines will be there, too, so visitors may taste California's most famous product.

FESTIVAL OF ARTS WINNERS FETED AT PARTY YESTERDAY

STORES CEASE LIQUOR SALE

The three Rexall drug stores operated here by the K-B Drug company will handle no liquor in the future, according to G. W. Bassett, general manager of the company.

Mr. Bassett said that a study of the situation had convinced him the stores can serve the public better as drug stores if they do not sell liquor, and for this reason liquor stocks will be discontinued. "Large stocks of liquor flouted before the eyes of all customers, including women and children, tend to keep out a class of trade which we value very highly and to which we wish to cater," said Mr. Bassett.

The three stores are located at Sixth and Main streets, 108 West Fourth street and at Second and Broadway. The latter store has not handled liquor.

The executive committee of the Santa Ana Ministerial union has commended the K-B stores on their new policy.

PARKING STUDY MAY BE MADE

Business men believe it ought to be as easy as possible to shop in Santa Ana, and Councilman Ernest Layton agrees with them, so he is planning to order a survey of parking conditions in the hope of finding a way to alleviate some of the conditions that exist today.

Mr. Layton, who is street commissioner, said he will bring the matter before the city council tonight and request that a survey be made on the city's business streets to find out what actual conditions are. Such a study, he said, should reveal some means of eliminating at least part of the parking problems.

Some of the narrower thoroughfares on which angle parking is used on one side become so congested that travel is difficult. In certain areas there are times on which scores of cars circulate around the block, slowing up traffic while they look for holes to dodge into.

Mr. Layton pointed out that convenient parking always attracts customers from out of town. He said he had received the suggestion of a parking service concern which would utilize vacant lots near the business section.

Santa Ana to Los Angeles and brought the three Orange county winners home.

Mrs. Grace Windey Mabey, festival manager, mentioned that 3000 poems were contributed. She told plans for next year's festival. Miss May read her "House on the Hill" because the hostess' home was on a hill. Other poems were read.

SUICIDE TRY IS UNSUCCESSFUL

John Roberts, 57, of 262 Glassell street, Orange, is in the Orange County hospital in a critical condition as the result of a bullet wound sustained last night. The bullet entered the left side of his chest and came out at the back near the shoulder blade.

The wound was self-inflicted, according to Mrs. Roberts, who witnessed the incident which took place in the front yard of their residence at about 10:30 o'clock. She told officers her husband had become despondent because of poor health.

According to Orange police, Mr. Roberts is a former deputy sheriff serving under Sam Jernigan.

HUNTINGTON BEACH WILL PLAY HOST TO COUNTY ON THURSDAY

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR EVENT

Schedule Many Features For Celebration of Fourth of July

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Monday, July 1.—Final preparations were being rushed today by chamber of commerce leaders, city officials and business firms for the gigantic patriotic celebration to be staged in Huntington Beach all day July Fourth. Possibilities of extending the festivities to July 5 and creating a four-day holiday period of Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday were seen today, according to Mayor Thomas B. Talbert, who will be the grand marshal.

Entertainment and talent imported from Hollywood and Los Angeles, said to be the greatest array presented here, will be featured tomorrow, after a morning of parade, and a night of fireworks, said today. The city council and chamber of commerce in their meetings tonight will adopt last-minute measures to assure success, Gallienne added.

A special unit in the gala morning parade set for 11 o'clock has been reserved for California state legislators and their families. Letters to 120 senators and assemblymen were recently sent out inviting them to attend the local celebration on their way to the San Diego fair.

Feature Girl Riders
Victor McLaglen's famed "Light Horse" troop of 30 skilled girl riders in full military costume will form a section of the parade. They will give an exhibition in the afternoon horse show at the ball park.

An equestrian division of more than 300 horses and riders will take part in the parade and horse show, it was assured by Clint Brush, Frank Lipscomb, Mrs. Herman Higbee, and Bill Jones, leaders of the equestrian division. Nearly 25 bands and drum and bugle corps from Southern California will be sprinkled through the parade and the noted Compton Boys and Girls bands will give exhibitions.

A baby parade under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Colvin, president of the Huntington Beach Women's club, with a $25 first prize; a bathing beauty contest with 48 girls representing the 48

ORANGE, Monday, July 1.—Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Martha Huscroft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huscroft, became the bride of James Krueger, son of Mrs. Ray Krueger sr., at her parents' home, 524 East Chapman avenue, Orange.

The bride wore white satin and lace, with a circular train. She carried white gardenias, and a handkerchief made by Mrs. George Sherwood 35 years ago.

Miss Wilda Huscroft, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Erwin Krueger, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Dr. Robert Burns McAulay performed the ceremony in the living room. A reception followed, attended by 100 guests. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huscroft, Miss Anna Huscroft, Mrs. Ray Krueger sr., and Mrs. Elsie Ehlen.

After the reception the couple left on a trip, the destination un-revealed. The bride was graduated from Orange High school, and has for the past year been teaching in the Cypress street school nursery.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Orange High school and attended Santa Ana Junior college. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

LAGUNA FESTIVAL PROCLAIMED SUCCESS BY MANY VISITORS

LAGUNA BEACH, Monday, July 1.—Approximately 2000 people attended the opening of the Laguna Beach Festival of Arts here Saturday evening. Guests crowded the entrance from late afternoon until midnight. At the main performance and program of the evening, approximately 200 were crowding the aisles and back-ground in order to glimpse the "Sea Pageant" and program.

Visitors to the festival grounds, many of them having traveled from many parts of California for the opening night, acclaimed the 56 art displays in individual booths as being the finest ever shown in Laguna. Hostesses were present at each booth to receive guests and introduce famous Laguna artists. Visitors crowded through the booths in which were shown paintings, weaving, pottery making, and dramatic displays.

Victor Rankin, master of ceremonies, opened the festival with a welcome and explanation of the annual festivities. "The March of Time," a program featuring events of interest in Laguna during the past year; "The Sea Pageant," a series of sketches of life on and under the sea portrayed by 50 local musicians and actors in costumes, and glimpses of Japanese life and customs, kept the audience of 2000 applauding for several minutes.

NUPTIAL CUSTOMS OF TWO NATIONS BLEND IN CEREMONY

Wedding bells in the manner of Old Mexico, ancestral country of the couple, blended with nuptial customs of the United States in the marriage of Miss Maria Herminia Olivos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilario Olivos of West Orange road, to Juan Benjamin Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Marval of Garden Grove road, last evening at 7 o'clock in the Full Gospel church. The Rev. Mr. Gallesos of Los Angeles read a Protestant marriage service in Spanish.

Two hundred guests were present.

The bride wore white satin made in a style typical of the more formal Mexican wedding, with a long train and a long, flowing lace veil. She carried white rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Gonzales attended the couple. Other attendants were Miss Lilia Molina, and three cousins of the bride who came to Santa Ana from Mexicali, Baja California, for the wedding, the Misses Cruz, Ana Maria and Elisa Arambula.

Escorts for the bridesmaids were Ricardo Benitez, Gilberto Gonzales and Carlos and Luis Olivos.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Ruth Smith of Anaheim, accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruth Frothing-ham, sang, "I Love You Truly."

After the wedding, a reception was given for 100 guests in Gonzales' hall. Here Miss Frothing-ham and Stephen Rodriguez played piano and cello music. A large photograph of the bridal party was taken.

Old-Timers At Picnic Discuss Early Days

By ROCH BRADSHAW They called it the Old-Timers' picnic when more than 3000 persons gathered at Irvine park yesterday for their annual reunion, but there were no old folks there. Instead, those who moved in and out in the crowd, seeking and finding old friends, saw not the faces of today, but the young and familiar faces they used to know 30, 40 and 50 years ago.

Many were there who had not seen each other for years. They searched every face for signs of the little tricks of expression they knew so well long ago; and when they found those clues and recognized old friends, the faces of a generation ago were what they saw in imagination—not the faces of today.

It was the largest picnic ever held by the Old-Timers association since its organization 10 years ago, and a tribute to the success of the affairs was expressed yesterday when the association re-elected County Clerk J. M. Backs as president, and Elmer Burns as secretary. George Peters, treasurer, would have been re-elected treasurer had he not emphatically informed the gathering that he would not be able to serve again. County Assessor James Sleeper was made treasurer by unanimous vote.

Pioneer Days Recalled
Scores of pioneers whose lives here in the early days were wrapped up in the childhood of the county, circulated among the tables under the live oak trees beside the pavilion where the gathering was held. They met old companions and acquaintances, recalled the humor and the pathos of the rugged pioneer days and in the evening went home through the twilight, cheered by the thought that old friends were still old friends.

The loyalty and labor of a few old-timers made the gathering yesterday possible. The officers of the club had given of their time for weeks beforehand. But early yesterday, when the birds were singing their ballads to the sun, a little group of men gathered at Irvine park to make sure that everything was in readiness. There was coffee to be prepared for more than 3000 persons, punch to be made and preparations for serving to be completed. Tables were made shiny and clean. In the group who labored so the reunion could be a happy one were Mr. Backs, Mr. Burns, Mr. Peters and John Ryan.

Visitors Sign Register
Those who had not been to the picnic before, or who had not received notices, kept four registers busy as they signed their names and addresses. From time to time Mr. Burns would announce over the loud speaker system the arrival of some old-timer of special note.

One of the earliest arrivals in the state, present at the picnic, was J. A. Wilkes of Santa Ana, who came to California in 1856. At the age of 10, Mr. Wilkes drove a wagon in his father's outfit that crossed the plains. Later, but not much later, he was a member of the California volunteers that served in the Civil War. Mr. Wilkes was a cavalryman and served in Arizona.

Another pioneer who came here as a boy was E. Kraemer of Placentia, who arrived in Orange county with his father's family in 1867. The old house in which the family lived, the first part of which was built in 1853, still stands near Mr. Kraemer's present home.

92-Year-Old There
One of the oldest pioneers present yesterday was H. A. Young, of Long Beach. He came to Garden Grove in 1875, and is now 92 years of age. Mr. Young, although blind, enjoyed the meeting of old friends with as much eagerness as anyone.

Some of the other old-timers present were D. W. Garner, who came to Orange county in 1866; Ed Honey, who came in 1875 and was a well known stage driver in early days; Dr. C. D. Ball, pioneer, physician, who only recently retired from 39 years of service on the Santa Ana library board; Ed E. Bustamont, who came in 1873; John Ryan, who came in 1876; George Peters, who came in 1876; and Mrs. Elizabeth Shrewsbury, who arrived in Orange in 1876.

Death Claims Many
Posted on an oak tree was a list of 246 old-timers who have passed away since last year's reunion. The list was compiled by George Peters. It included two centenarians, Senora Martina de la Rosa of Delhi, who was 129 years of age when she passed away, and Thomas W. Scudder, who was 100 years old when he died. This list, Mr. Peters said, was not complete, but was as nearly so as he could make it.

The Old-Timers association has been growing year by year. At the first picnic 10 years ago there were 600 present, compared to more than 3000 yesterday. As the crowds grow larger and larger it becomes more difficult to make arrangements, and more preparations are necessary, but always the event has been a success. Among suggestions for future picnics was one to the effect that placards be posted at various points, bearing the dates of the various decades, so that persons who came here in 1890, for instance, could gather under the 1890 banner and meet old friends who came at the same time.

By FRANK ROGERS

Thoughts of a sporting writer on a day off:
Santa Ana's Stars, despite their splendid first half record, will probably drop the second half, we think, but should trim any of the loop's rivals in a playoff... the reason being that Jim Coates, who is practically the Santa Ana pitching staff, can't be expected to keep up the pace he has set, but should have enough left to triumph in a titanic duel.

THAT WRESTLING SHOW TONIGHT

Tonight's local mat card should be at least unique, and may even be a new high in entertainment. Ernie Dusek, right-handed, is the main attraction, teamed with the Japanese flash, Kiman Kudo. The first fall will be fought for under jiu-jitsu rules and should be won handsily by the Nippon ace, who is accustomed to the sport and to the strange jackets the boys wear in this pastime... the second fall will be under so-called orthodox wrestling rules in which Dusek is rated an expert, purely on sheer brutality if nothing else. Kudo is a brown flash but if Dusek catches him just once it will be plenty.

For the deciding fall, if one is needed, the winner of the fastest of the two previous falls will decide the rules. That, it seems to us, gives an edge to Kudo who may flip the thick-eared Dusek in record time with some of his intricate bone-bending grasps.

ONE REAL AMATEUR BOXER SHOWS HERE

Almost worth the price of admission himself is one new "discovery" at Sam Sampson's Orange County Athletic club's Thursday night boxing show. Matchmaker Ben Steffler had Young French Chacon on the card last week and he was such a hit that he was immediately signed up for another showing. Last week this youngster—he looks about 14—boxed very well off Tony Clayton in by far the best demonstration of real ring generalship the local prize ring has seen this season. Thursday night he met Shub Pollard, bantamweight champion of U. S. S. Arizona, in what should be a classic boxing battle. Chacon works on pure science but it is far more interesting than the slug and take it method used by so many of the lads of these days. He is truly the Gene Tunney type of warrior. You'll like him.

DOG RACING BILL HAS FAIR CHANCE

Local dog racing enthusiasts at yesterday's greyhound meeting here, heard from the lips of one of Governor Merriam's very own men that the dog racing bill has a 50-50 chance to get the state executive's O.K. However, a strong expression of public sentiment has been registered. A public hearing on the bill, now awaiting final action from Merriam, will be held July 12. The gov. must sign by July 15.

Cliff Callan told local canine caterers that the legalizing of bets on the greyhounds, which the bill calls for, would mean an annual revenue to the state over about one million clam shells. About 8 per cent of the money wagered would go to the breeders and the track operators with 88 per cent to be returned to the public. Callan asked that all those for and agin' the plan write to Merriam.

Note: From privately-gathered information, we know how the governor makes up his mind on these controversial matters that are left up to him by a wily legislator. First of all, he never thinks of signing or vetoing a bill until the last possible minute allowed him. As the letters concerning the bill question come in, he stacks up the "ayes" on one side of his desk and the "noes" on the other. He generally follows the sentiment indicated by the larger stack unless there are two many personal representatives of the other side around the premises. An insurance man, name on request, told us this so it must be so.

Incidentally, it is the same insurance man who promised to take us surf fishing right after we came to town and didn't do so yet. He is a brand new father and has his office near The Journal. And if he reads this I hope he hollers out the window and tells us he has set the date.

RICHFIELD OILERS BEAT FULLERTON

FULLERTON, Monday, July 1. Opening up with a barrage of base-knocks after being held six innings by no-hit, no-run pitching, the Richfield Oilers pounced on Errol Stoner at Fullerton yesterday for a 3 to 2 victory.

The Oilers will tangle with the Catalina Islanders next Sunday, while Fullerton meets the Pasadena Merchants at Fullerton. The following week-end Richfield and Fullerton renew their series.

Dusek Tangles With Jap Mat Star Tonight

KUDO BATTLES BAD MAN OF MATS HERE

Bringing together two of the game's most widely known extremists, tonight's wrestling show at the Orange County Athletic club has as its headline attraction an unique bout between Ernie Dusek, the Omaha Orge, and Kiman Kudo, Japanese jiu-jitsu specialist. Meeting in a three-fall affair, the boys will fight at least one straight-jackets match, and a worked-out by Tige Clinton, hoorah man for Sam Sampson's mat shows. The first fall will be under the Nippon's favorite brand of participation, with the Japanese straight-jackets and all. Kudo, a 175-pound flash, who licked Bill Grubbs last week is said never to have lost a bout in this Oriental version of wrestling. The second fall will be under present day wrestling rules, if there be any.

Are There Rules?
Most wrestling followers will tell you that, indeed, if there are any rules Dusek hasn't read them and wouldn't follow them if he had. The fierce mid-westerner not only does not know his own wrestling rules, he recognizes no ethics whatsoever; all's fair in love, war and wrestling to him. Should a deciding fall be needed, the matman who wins his fall in the fastest time will decide the rules for the final fall.

Many believe this gives the Japanese an edge because of his great advantage in the jiu-jitsu division. Others think that Dusek will batter Kudo's head in record time.

Felice Faces Beating
Mike Romano and Matros Kirilinko, two of the game's veteran heavies, tangle in a rematch for the semi-windup, while Tony Felice takes on certain defeat in Casey Columbo, mustached Santa Monica threat in the second bout. Casey is undefeated here.

Harry Ekizian and Pat Meheringer, navy strong man, meet in the opener.

Clarence "Moose" Hapes, Garden Grove's 250-pound mammoth, who has been with Westminster of National Night Ball, is slated to join Irvine for its county league engagement with the leading Brea nine on the Irvine grounds at 8 o'clock tonight.

Irvine moved into a third-place deadlock through Brea's 4-1 defeat of San Juan Capistrano in a postponed tussle Friday, and the addition of Hapes, University of Mississippi star and a long-distance hitter, will help keep the Bearpaw-kers in the first division.

Shortstop Emmett Secord, whose eye was injured when a firecracker exploded in his face last week, will return to the lineup. Ira DeBusk will pitch for Irvine and Ray Hodson, another flinger, will be at first base. Wilson Secord will relieve DeBusk.

Fullerton's second-place unit plays at Huntington. Garden Grove journeys to Placentia Beach and Olive Treks to San Juan Capistrano for other assignments. There will be no games July Fourth. The first half ends next Monday, with Brea and Fullerton holding the limelight in a probable championship fray at Fullerton.

SANTA ANITA UPSET, 2-1

Santa Anita was credited today with having played perhaps its best game of the Inter-City league season—a 2-1 defeat from Compton's hard ball aggregation here yesterday.

Cliff Miller, ex-University of Oregon flinger, had the better of a pitching duel with Compton Junior college's Pearl. The Santa Anita star fanned 12 and limited the victors to three hits, but two of them were doubles by M. Haddock and Thompson. Second-baseman Rocha of Santa Anita gathered the only extra-base hit, a two-bagger.

Santa Anita garnered six hits, two by Joe Koral and one each by "Bono" Koral, Villa, Rocha and Pitcher Miller.

Cabrera's diving catch in left field of what looked like a certain home run and Miller's stout pitching were the defensive gems of the afternoon.

Newport Sloops Win In San Pedro Event

LOS ANGELES, Monday, July 1. (AP)—In summery breezes, white sails flecked the Los Angeles county coast yesterday in three separate events off Santa Monica, San Pedro and Long Beach, respectively.

Off Santa Monica, Owen P. Churchill's Olympic champion 8-meter sloop Angella captured the King of San trophy for the third time since it was posted in 1929 by permission of ex-King Alfonso of Spain.

Arthur MacRate Jr., twice a contender for international championship honors in the star sailing class, tilted the sloop Zoa to victory in the first of six fleet elimination races off Long Beach in preparation for the world championships to be held in August off Balboa.

Al Rogers Wins
In the San Pedro event, the 6-meter sloop Synnove of Newport, sailed by Al Rogers, won a 29-mile ocean race from Santa Monica by a slim 25 seconds from her fleet-mate, Mystery, tilted by William Bartholomae. Synnove's elapsed time was 5 hours 42 minutes 50 seconds.

In the Long Beach race over a 15-mile course, the Zoa, 1932 runner-up in American Olympic games eliminations, led Robert Zeigler's Win Blu by nearly three minutes. Third was Frank Lippman's Pat Riot. The series continues July 7, 14, 21, 28 and August 11.

So impressive in moving down the opposition was the Santa Anita that he needed to play only 54 of the regulation 72 holes to cop the title.

Kennedy's semi-final match with Joe DeMichele bothered him more than his test with the brilliant Tatum. DeMichele lost, 3 and 2, after keeping the match alive until the sixteenth. Don finished with two pars for a 73.

Santa Anita's new golf king plans to take a crack at the California state title sometime in August. This tournament probably will be held in the San Francisco district, where interest in junior golf appears to be keener.

SENATORS TAKE TWO GAMES
(By The Associated Press)
A suddenly revived Sacramento ball club hoisted itself from the Pacific Coast league cellar with a smashing double victory Sunday over the San Francisco Missions—the Missions still clung to the league leadership.

After receipting for five straight trouncings, the Sacramento Senators yesterday turned the tables, hammered Mission pitchers right and left for 43 hits and ran in both games of a doubleheader, 18 to 8 and 11 to 1.

The San Francisco Seals moved into second place by weathering a downpour to beat Seattle, 13 to 3, while Hollywood moved up to third by defeating the Los Angeles Angels, 5-3.

Heavy weather in the Pacific northwest choked off the Los Angeles Portland contest in the ninth, with Portland ahead. The second game was postponed, as was the second Seals-Indian contest at Seattle.

CHAMP LIKES SET-UP FOR LOUIS BOOT

By EDDIE BRIETZ
NEW YORK, Monday, July 1. (AP)—If James J. Braddock has his way, Joe Louis, new Negro sensation, will get the first whack at his newly won world's heavyweight title.

Braddock believes a fight with Louis next summer would draw the nearest approach to a million dollar gate since the lush days of Tex Rickard and Jack Dempsey. Joe Gould, the new champ's busy little manager, added: "Million dollar gates are what Braddock & Co., Ltd., are interested in."

Call Bout 'Natural'
Gould and Braddock figure Louis will knock Max Schmeling out of the picture in September and then repeat the performance in October on the blushing bridegroom, Max Baer, thus clearing the decks for a "natural" between Louis and Braddock next summer.

Right now Braddock and Gould are going through the delightful experience of raking in profits from all directions. "We will make $200,000 in the next 12 months without pulling on a glove," said Gould. "So why fight? Anyway, New York has had too big heavyweights fights this year and may get two more. That's enough."

Plans Stage Debut
Braddock is rehearsing a vaudeville skit in which he will be co-starred with his wife. He is sought for exhibitions, paid thousands for endorsements and there is talk of a Hollywood engagement.

The other day when Gould nonchalantly demanded—and got—$10,000 for lending Braddock's name to a product, the champ, with his ever present sense of humor, said: "That's a laugh. Why a year ago if we had walked up Broadway with placards on our backs we'd have been lucky to get $3."

BEAR 8 SETS RACE MARK

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN
LONG BEACH, July 1. (AP)—A record over-shadowing any other oarsmen ever hoped to set up on this Olympic marine stadium belonged to the great University of California crew today.

The Golden Bears posted a 6 minutes, 15.6 seconds mark Saturday as they won the Second National Intercollegiate sprint regatta over the 2000-meter course, defeating Washington, Syracuse and Pennsylvania in that order, named in a finish that was so close there wasn't a boat length of open water between the first and last shells.

It was 12 and 6-10 seconds faster than the performance of Italy in the 1932 Olympic games—a mark that had stood up for three years against the best efforts of California, Washington, Yale, Harvard and Cornell.

Each of the four crews in the finals crossed the finish line under the old mark.

Two of the vanquished crews, Al Ulbrickson of Washington and Russell Callow of Pennsylvania, were outspoken in the belief that the 1935 California crew, which only recently won the Poughkeepsie 4-mile event in a close finish, was a better crew.

Greater by a goodly margin than the Golden Bear eight which won the tenth Olympiad title here.

CANZONER DOGS WILL RACE IN EAST; BRASS BUCKLES WINS

Despite several scratches due to the absence of the Canzoners, who have been shipped to the east to compete with the best greyhounds of Virginia, an entertaining program of races was conducted by the Orange County Kennel club on its track between Santa Ana and Anaheim yesterday.

Two petite monkeys, riding in a special match race, furnished the highlight. One of the baby apes let out some fancy yelling on the home stretch when the dog ridden by his competitor caught up and attacked him.

But no damage was done, since all the canines wear muzzles. No records were broken, although Brass Buckles, in winning a match race from California Flash in 19 seconds flat, came within one-fifth of a second of Traffic Mistake's mark for the 330-yard event.

In the seventh race, a futurity for 514 yards, Ben Andy and Foxey Lee were leading the field on the home stretch, but engaged in a scuffle on the southwest turn and California Coon came up from third place to win in 432 seconds flat.

Head-lining next Sunday's program will be a race between Dragon Princess, California state champion, and Trojan's Pal, holder of the Phoenix, Ariz., track record, it was announced. The distance will be for seven-sixteenths of a mile instead of the usual 330 and

STAGE IS SET

While he was winning his own quarter-finals match from Rodrick Menzel of Czechoslovakia 9-7, 6-1, 6-1, Fred Perry, above, realized the stage was set for a possible repetition of last year's all-English tennis duel. Jack Crawford, Australian, whom Perry beat out for the singles title last year, pulled the biggest upset of the Wimbledon tournament by downing Sidney Wood of New York in a five-set match.

JUMPER SETS UNOFFICIAL STANDARD

ST. LOUIS, Monday, July 1. (AP) It's been ten long years but to Harold Osborn they've apparently brought even more spring and vigor than back in 1925 when he was the high jumping, national decathlon and Olympic decathlon champion.

In an outdoor meet that year, the spectacular Illinois university star stood beside a cross-bar and, without a run, lifted himself 5 feet, 5 1/2 inches to tie the standing high jump record established in 1913 by Edo Goehring.

Unofficial Record
There the record stood until yesterday when the lean jumper appeared in an exhibition at the Ozark Amateur Athletic union track carnival. The veteran tensed his muscles, seemed to throw off the weight of ten years, and knifed his way over the bar at 5 feet, 6 inches for an unofficial world's record.

Previously, Osborn flashed down the paths in a running high jump exhibition and cleared the bar at 6 feet, 6 inches, equalling the best mark of his prime days.

Other Stars
Osborn was one of the about a dozen stars, including Glenn Cunningham and Jack Torrance, who competed in the Ozark meet and who are converging on Omaha today.

Torrance, world's shotput record-holder, tossed the 16-pound ball 55 feet, 8 1/2 inches for the best have ever made in American soil. His world mark of 57 feet, 1 inch was made at Oslo, Sweden.

Cunningham, taking it easy as Glenn Dawson and Johnny Wolff failed to press him, methodically raced 1000 meters in 2:27.3, four seconds slower than his own world's record.

FATHER, SON IN GOLF VICTORY

L. Rex Kennedy and his 16-year-old son, Don, holders of the Southern California junior title, survived the quarter-finals of Santa Ana Country club's annual high-end golf tourney over the week-end, and will face D. R. Manker and Ward Akley in semi-finals next Saturday or Sunday.

The Kennedy combination defeated C. P. Boyer and B. V. Curry, 1 up, and the Manker-Akley team advanced with a triumph over Robert Korff and E. Byrne, 3 and 2.

J. C. Burke and Charles Briscoe will oppose Ed Holmes and Roy Langley in the other semi-final match. Mr. Burke and Mr. Briscoe trimmed Ross Hostetler and Bob Miller, 2 and 1, and the Holmes-Langley team downed L. L. Carden and Harry Olson, 1 up on the 20th hole.

L. D. Coffing and E. Robins, with a 14-9-65, won the weekly best ball sweepstakes from H. B. Rap and P. E. Farnsworth, 75-9-66, and A. E. Watson and J. W. Beach, 78-11-67.

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS START PAYING TODAY ON RECORD BUDGET

LARGEST TAX PROGRAM IS STARTED

Additional Levies Are Expected With Special Legislature Called

SACRAMENTO, Monday, July 1. — California's state government today on a new biennial budget, asking its taxpayers to support the largest budget in the history of the state, $372,000,000.

To run the government from July 1, 1935 to June 30, 1937, the legislature and Governor Merriam have shouldered onto the state's estimated population of 5,837,000 a tax program expected to return at least $366,000,000.

The budget is about $32,000,000 larger than that for the 1933-35 biennium and on a per capita basis the tax program will demand about $62 for every man, woman and child in the state during the next two years.

The legislature may convene next February to broaden an already extensive revenue program by another $24,000,000, the largest amount of which would be expended for unemployment relief.

Three Start Today
A further burden is in sight in the form of a special election August 13, at which taxpayers will be asked to approve a $13,950,000 bond issue for permanent improvements to state institutions and permit the state to negotiate for some $25,000,000 in short term

SANTA ANAN SEEKS WINGS Boy Gets Army Air Chance

The first junior college graduate ever known to be accepted for a three-year course in aviation under the United States army corps at Randolph Field, San Antonio, Tex., Roy Seaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seaver of 721 South Sycamore street, won an appointment to the airport last week, bringing signal honors to Santa Ana Junior college.

Interested in aviation since he was a small boy, Roy and a chum used to make small airplanes to sell to neighbors. One model brought as much as $3 to the pair. He studied aviation at the junior college, where he was graduated in 1934.

loans to finance the deficit of the present biennium.

Three of the six new tax measures enacted by the 51st legislature before it adjourned on June 17 go into practical effect today, although sections of them actually became effective several days ago.

The tax bills upon which the state's populace will begin paying today are the new sales tax rate of 3 per cent, the new liquor levies and the increased inheritance tax rates.

The other bills, transfer of automobile property taxes to the state from the cities and counties, the 1-to-15 per cent net income tax and the doubled bank-corporation net profits levy, will be collectable at various periods after January 1, 1936.

Nearly All Food Exempt
Although the legislature, in enacting the new sales tax, intended to exempt only essential foodstuffs, the board of equalization, which administers it, decided last week that the exemption clause

During the past year, he has built up his physical condition so that he passed the first examination given at March Field, Riverside, in March, almost 100 per cent. Previous to his final acceptance at Randolph Field, he will be given another physical examination.

Rigid requirements to this branch of the service generally eliminate all candidates except those who have had four years of college work, according to D. K. Hammond, director of the junior college. He will have two years' work at Randolph Field and finish with a year of special training at Kelly Field.

was so broad all foodstuffs, except such grocery items as baking soda and flavoring extracts, would be tax free.

The law does not exempt meals served in restaurants, nor candy, confectionery, bottled water, or alcoholic beverages.

The new liquor tax, imposing for the first time a levy on hard liquor at the rate of 80 cents a gallon, probably will materially increase the drinking costs of the average man. If the tax is passed on to the consumer, two-ounce bottles will be taxed 2 cents, half pints 5 cents, pints 10 cents, quarts 20 cents, and gallons 80 cents.

GROUP WANTS IDEAS
Members who attend the meeting of the First Christian church

Missionary society Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock are asked to bring suggestions for making the organization a more spiritual group. Mrs. C. E. Price, president, will officiate.

7 ACCIDENTS INJURE 13 IN COUNTY

Seven automobile accidents on Orange county highways over the week-end resulted in 13 persons sustaining injuries. Three of the accidents occurred when drivers of the cars fell asleep at the wheel, and one resulted when the driver was overcome by carbon monoxide gas from the exhaust of the car.

Calvin J. Culp, 31, Midway City, was injured when he fell asleep while driving his car on Huntington Beach boulevard near Ocean avenue Saturday night, and the car left the road and crashed into a telephone pole. A similar accident occurred on Chapman avenue near Main street at 4:30 a. m. Sunday, when Reginald Preciado, 22, of Pomona, fell asleep at the wheel of his car which went off the road and struck a pole. Preciado and a passenger, Frank Menesey, 21, of Pomona, were slightly injured.

The third accident of the same kind occurred at 11:15 p. m. yesterday, Newport road one mile north of Costa Mesa, when Monroe Rice, 20, of 905 East Second street, Santa Ana, fell asleep and drove his car into a tree at the side of the road. Rice sustained only slight injuries. However, a passenger in his car, Miss Ruth Wilson, 17, of Costa Mesa, was taken to the Santa Ana Valley hospital where it was reported today that she was still unconscious as a result of injuries. Two other passengers, Miss Lillian Wilson of Costa Mesa and Miss Helen Burnett, 18, Anaheim, also were injured.

Overcome by Gas
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kolkhurst of Orange were taken to the Santa Ana Valley hospital last midnight with injuries after their machine had gone off the highway near Tustin and crashed into a pole. Mr. Kolkhurst said he believed fumes from the exhaust had seeped into the machine, which was driven with all windows closed, rendering him temporarily unconscious. Mrs. Kolkhurst's condition is considered serious by hospital attendants.

Howard McClintock, 22, of Riverside, is in the Orange county hospital recovering from injuries sustained in an accident involving a tank truck and an automobile in Santa Ana canyon early Sunday morning. According to reports filled with highway patrol officers, the truck, driven by Henry L. Martin, 48, Riverside, was traveling slowly when a grade when a car driven by Charles E. Burns, 22, Arlington, came rapidly around a curve and crashed head-on into it. McClintock, who was riding in the truck, was the only one injured.

4 Cars in One Crash
Don May, 20, of Anaheim, and Miss Lilly Hallager, 19, Anaheim, were taken to the Orange county hospital yesterday morning after the car driven by May had gone off the highway near Cypress and hit a tree. Miss Hallager suffered a broken wrist and lacerations.

Roy Jacobson Jr., age 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jacobson of Wilmar, was the only one injured at 8:30 p. m. yesterday when four cars piled up in an accident at Sunset Beach. The machines were driven by Mrs. Jacobs, James Skikler, 22, Santa Monica, Mrs. Buelah Ashburn, 38, Long Beach, and R. W. McGuffie, 22, Long Beach.

Arthur Pritchard Jr., since your disappearance from home in Los Angeles June 27, your parents have asked police to help locate you. Please communicate with relatives at once. Your father will send for you wherever you are.

Harold Hilton, please communicate with your mother in San Diego. She is nearly ill with worry over your disappearance.

PEACE MOVE REFUSED BY MUSSOLINI

LONDON, Monday, July 1. (AP)—England's traveling diplomat, Capt. Anthony Eden, disclosed today that the house of commons today that, on behalf of the British government, he had offered to cede a strip of British territory to Ethiopia in an effort to end the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

He further disclosed that Premier Mussolini of Italy had turned the suggestion down.

When Eden had finished his revelations, the government ran into a storm from opposition leaders, who demanded to know whether the house of commons would be consulted before British territory was ceded.

Their answer, from Sir Samuel Hoare, secretary, was the tart statement:

"The commons must trust the executive department in these matters. If it is not prepared to trust the government, the whole basis of government is destroyed."

Captain Eden, who is minister for the League of Nations, and who recently returned from conversations in Rome and Paris, was heard by packed galleries. Captain Eden explained that the British proposal to Mussolini was that the British government should offer a strip of territory in British Somaliland to Ethiopia, giving that nation access to the sea. This, he said, was intended to facilitate such territorial and economic concessions from Ethiopia to Italy as might be involved in an agreed settlement.

WHAT TALES IT COULD TELL! Jewel Box Is 100 Years Old

There's a small brown jewel chest at the home of Miss Lillie Southerland at 606 East Fifth street that would spin a yarn if it could be set a-talking.

More than 100 years old, the box was brought from somewhere in Asia by Miss Sutherland's father, Capt. J. M. Sutherland, when he was in the British navy. It is made of sandalwood, intricately carved about a half-inch thick.

On the cover is a poised peacock, on the lookout for the peacocks which are carved at the corners of the lid. Deeply cut roses and leaves adorn the sides of the chest.

Miss Sutherland doesn't know its history. It is one of the many oriental pieces which her father brought to her on his return from battle. In her collection she has an embroidered sari (scarf) taken in the Indian mutiny at Delhi. Some dainty blue Chinese cups are packed away also, taken long ago from a Chinese junk.

After leaving the British navy, her father was a coffee planter in Colombo, Ceylon Island, south of Hindustan.

APPOINTMENTS WILL CLOSE METHODIST MEETING TONIGHT

With the reading of appointments scheduled for the final item of business, the 60th annual Southern California conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was scheduled to close tonight in Long Beach.

It was felt certain by members of the congregation here that the Rev. Dr. George A. Warner sr. would be returned to the First Methodist church here. The pulpit which will be assigned to the Rev. George A. Warner jr., who was ordained a minister at sessions of the conference yesterday, was not known.

Three Santa Anans Choose Last Day of June for Their Weddings

Two Couples Plan to Live in This City, One in Upland

Three Santa Anans said "I do" on the last day of June, two of them in wedding ceremonies in Santa Ana and the third in a home ceremony in San Bernardino.

Yesterday's weddings concluded the busiest, most "partied" June bridal month of the past several years. Additional weddings are being planned by Santa Ana young couples for this and next month.

Miss Mildred Myrtle Veale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Veale, 1107 West Highland, was married to George W. Clewett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clewett of Upland, in the presence of 200 of their friends yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. H. G. Burgess of Glendale, former Santa Ana Methodist minister and a friend of the bride's family, officiated.

Bride Born Here

The bride, who was born in Santa Ana, wore a smart white wool swag suit with white accessories and gardenia corsage and was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Jean Reuter of Santa Ana, maid of honor, wore a white ensemble with corsage of pink callias. Little Beverly Harding of Santa Paula, in pastel frock, was flower girl.

John McLeod of Santa Ana was best man. Paul Clewett of Upland, and Ray Brady of Los Angeles were ushers. The church was festive with white summer flowers and greenery.

Before the ceremony Miss Ruth Covington played the organ and Mrs. Carol Ross of Santa Ana sang.

Reception Follows

A reception was given in the social hall to all the wedding guests. Mrs. Veale, Miss Nora Veale and Miss Alice Mae Clewett assisted in receiving and serving.

The bride couple then left for a short wedding trip, planning to return to Mr. Clewett's ranch at Elsinore.

Mrs. Clewett is a graduate of Santa Ana High school with the June '35 class. Her husband lived in Santa Ana most of his life, is a graduate of Chaffey Junior college and attended the University of California at Berkeley.

McCleary-Rogers
In the presence of 75 friends and relatives yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in First Christian church, Miss Hazel McCleary, daughter of Mrs. Anna McCleary of 311 West Chestnut avenue, was married to C. Edwin Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers of Tustin. The Rev. Walter Scott Buchanan officiated.

The bride wore a becoming blue net afternoon frock with large hat, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Vesta Woods, wore yellow net frock and hat and carried lavender and salmon sweet peas.

Nelson Rogers attended his brother as best man.

Mrs. R. S. Briggs, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Frank Pierce in singing "I Love You Truly" and "In the Arms of Love."

A reception at the bride's mother's home followed.

After a short trip the couple will return to Tustin to live. The bride is a supervisor in the telephone company's offices. She was educated in the east. Her husband is a graduate of Tustin High school and is engaged in ranching.

Fine-Eddy Rites
Yesterday at high noon in the home of Mrs. Jesse Ross, San Bernardino, Mrs. Ross' sister, Miss Nadine Fine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fine of San Bernardino, was married to Clarence Eddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Flint W. Eddy, 627 North Ross street.

The wedding was solemnized by the Rev. D. L. Stivers of San Bernardino Christian church, a son of the Rev. J. T. Stivers, pastor of the Orange Avenue Christian church.

The bride wore a white crepe lace gown, a tiny white hat with rose veil, and a gardenia corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Ross (she wearing pink chiffon and pink rosebud corsage), attended the couple.

After the wedding, a wedding luncheon was served. The bride cut a tiered wedding cake, and a bridegroom's cake and molded wedding bell ices were served with mint, nuts and coffee in the dessert course. The luncheon table was centered with white larkspur and tall white tapers.

The ceremony was witnessed by members of the two families and Mrs. Paul V. Watson of Phoenix, Ariz., a long-time chum of the bride.

Trip to Lake Tahoe
Only members of the two families were present. After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Eddy left for a week's stay at Lake Tahoe. They will return to live in Santa Ana.

The bride is a graduate of San Bernardino High school and Junior college. She is a native of California.

Mr. Eddy is a graduate of Santa Ana High school and attended Oregon State college, where he was a Sigma Nu. He is employed as a card writer in a Santa Ana grocery.

Lagunalog Unites Two In Church

By MAXINE STOREY

Bold bearded pirates... gay and beautiful peasants... and the fourth annual Laguna Festival of Arts is casting a spell of romance about all who visit and make their homes in the art colony. Two thousand people attended the opening Saturday evening, admiring the 56 exhibits, and applauded the entertainment staged on the picturesque replica of Columbus' famous ship, the Santa Maria. For the fourth time, Laguna has placed her beloved artists upon a pedestal for all the world to see and for the fourth year out-of-town art lovers and Lagunaites are praising and enjoying the many paintings and exhibits.

It is, of course, impossible to name even a small part of the many who have crowded the festival the two evenings it has been opened but managed to glimpse a few at this or that booth chatting and admiring. For instance...

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Caesar chatting with Dick Diggs, Paramount executive and a weekly visitor to Laguna; Dick baffling everyone in a half-pirate-half-Marx outfit with wig which stood his hair on a frightened end at a jerk from the string down his back...

Betty and Bronson Barber meandering through the very interesting motion picture booth... Mrs. Charles F. Riesner, wife of the director in charge of the picture booth, greeting guests and looking lovely in a blue evening gown with tiny pleats all the way around the full skirt...

Frank Cuprien, Laguna's very popular artist, enthusiastically examining pottery in one of the crafts booths... Eric Linden, actor, Maurice Willows, and Halmar Forrest chatting in front of the "Fine Arts" building... Byron Logan, Laguna's very popular artist, in the spotlight to the hundreds in the artists'...

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Chilton strolling from booth to booth and finally spending much time admiring the "Fine Arts" display... pottery-maker Sherman and pottery-maker Pettit having a friendly and humorous argument at Mr. Pettit's booth...

Chris Valente, unrecognizable in a pirate's costume with crossbones and all... Vic Rankin, master-of-ceremonies, introducing the famous metaphysician, Dr. Walter Raymond; philosopher, Ralph Radio Tryon; and actor, Clarence Wilson to the audience Sunday evening... Bill Kirk of Tustin escorting his mother through the Community Players booth...

Louise Rurup wide-eyed at the "Road to Mandalay" sketch... Stan Hahn of Pasadena heckling everyone within calling distance to view Mr. Cuprien's marine painting... Barbara and Ralph Frost, Dick Skidmore of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. William Robson, and Al Foley in a circular group happy-birthday-ing and festival-greeting Saml Pierce who just returned to Laguna after several weeks announcing Ben Bernie's program at Calalina... and "Kabo" Laguna's beloved little Japanese boy who daily promenades the board-walk and welcomes teachers, stealing the Saturday night performance on his huge cushion in the middle of the stage.

Tuesday evening, young and old will don bright costumes and attend the Festival of Arts "Pirate and Peasant" ball. Frank Niemans' orchestra will play from ten till and dangers will again celebrate a very successful festival. The feature and fun of the evening will be the Cinderella dance. For this, "peasant girls" will place their shoes on a large

Church Rites Family Treasure Given Queen Unite Young Couple

By MAXINE STOREY

Highlighting the pageantry and glamour of the installation services of Job's Daughters, held in the Masonic temple Saturday night, was the presentation of a strand of gold beads to Lorraine Wheeler, honored queen, the sixth generation of her family to receive the treasure which has been handed down to Eastern Star members for more than 100 years.

In the regal robes of purple and white, lodge colors, officers of the temple were inducted into office. They were seated to form a cross before a white altar banked with fern and Shasta daisies. Presiding over the rites was Eloise Schrier, retiring honored queen. Dora Perkins Goodman acted as guide; Margaret Sawyer as marshal; Ruth Baker, chaplain; Virginia Graves, recorder; Nadine Pennington, junior custodian; Mary Kettler, senior custodian, and Marion Doty, pianist. Little Barbara Lee Pickering, wearing a long blue organdy dress, carried an old-fashioned corsage in her role as honorary escort to the queen.

Elizabeth Smith Welcomes
The welcoming address was made by Elizabeth Smith, past honored queen. Winnie May Dean, guardian, and Frank Sawyer, associate guardian, took honor posts at the services.

Symbolic of the queen's emblem, the horn of plenty was the cache of the past queen's jewel. The token had been placed in the center of a gardenia and, as the presentation was made to Eloise Schrier, Jewel Thebeau sang "A Little White Gardenia," accompanied by Marion Doty.

A gift from her brother, Ralph Wheeler, a gavel was presented the new queen, as well as scores of baskets of flowers and other complimentary gifts.

Honored Guests Present
Honored guests of the occasion were Jacqueline Coney, honored queen, Bethel No. 6, Long Beach; John "Sky" Dunlap of Salt Lake City was best man. Rowland Harker of Anaheim and Morris Fox of Redlands were ushers.

A reception was given for the bride party and relatives in the garden of the Robbins home.

The bride wore a rose crepe sports suit with white accessories when she left with her husband for a week's wedding trip. Their new home will be at 1014A North Parton street.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Redlands and is a graduate of the El Modena grammar school. Mrs. Robbins was born in Santa Ana, is a graduate of Santa Ana High school and Junior college and is employed in the investigation department of the S.E.R.A.

Miss Josephine Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ball, 111 West Seventeenth street, returned to Santa Ana last Friday evening filled with the inspiration of attending the 12th annual convention of Delta Phi Upsilon, national honorary kindergarten-primary fraternity, last Wednesday to Salve at Hotel El Camino, Santa Barbara. Sixty-five delegates from far-flung cities were present.

El Camino Real, the King's highway, and its accompanying legend and history of California provided the theme of the convention, one feature of which was an illustrated talk by Mrs. Leopold Stokowski, chairman of art department and associate director, Dalton Schools, Inc., New York. Mrs. Stokowski's talk dealt with modern trends of "Art in Lives of Young Children." "Emotion and creative imagination are the background of all action," Mrs. Stokowski said. Young children need efficient guides to supplement their own minds, not teachers who just teach, was her thought.

An elaborate Spanish barbecue dinner, with Mexican dancer's entertainment, was served in the outdoor tea room on the beach of the Edgemoor Beach club, Montecito, the evening of June 26.

Terminating a day of business sessions, Thursday, was the traditional formal banquet in El Encanto dining hall. Dr. Robert N. McLean, Santa Barbara Presbyterian minister, spoke and Margaret Dawson of Columbia university, grand president, presided.

On the last day of the convention, Friday, a series of surprises was prepared by the Santa Barbara chapter. First was the presentation of many old chants by some of the pastes of the Santa Barbara mission in the quad of the state college. Led by the Santa Barbara girls, students of the Santa Barbara State college, the convention members were shown fine exhibits of the art and library departments of the college. Following the exhibition, a caravan of cars took the Delta Phi's first to the Santa Barbara Biltmore hotel, then to the spacious private

FRED TRUMAN HONORED WITH PARTY
Mrs. Fred Truman honored her husband with a surprise birthday anniversary party yesterday at their home, 324 East Pine street. Mr. and Mrs. Truman have been residents of Santa Ana for the past 15 years.

After the noonday dinner, the guests played croquet. Present were a nephew of Mr. Truman, Arley Truman of Morrovia, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Axton and daughter, Barbara Jean, of La Crescenta; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bailey, Burbank; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Truman and George Shadwell, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Barnett and son, Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Woodie Barnett, George Venners, Clark Barr, Frank Grant and V. VOL. 1, NO. 53 Monday, July 1, 1935

A TWO-NEWSPAPER CITY

THE JOURNAL is two months old today. And very happy as a result of its publication experiences so far. Furthermore it is our impression that Santa Ana generally is pleased with its present situation of being a two-newspaper city.

The 60 days have slid by with surprising speed since Vol. 1, No. 1 rolled off the press on May day. For The Journal staff it has been an interesting and busy period. There was much to learn, much to accomplish.

Frankly (and we hope you will keep this strictly inside the family circle), we received some criticism, complaints and suggestions for changes and improvements during the first week. It was evident the comments were made in friendly, constructive spirit. So, instead of disheartening us, they gave us reassurance. They told us that the men and women who voiced them wanted The Journal to succeed. Every effort was made to remedy the faults pointed out and to meet, as far as we could, the wishes of the critics.

In the more recent weeks, the adverse comments have become few, the public's acceptance steadily wider, expressions of commendation ever warmer. It is our own feeling that during June operations in all departments began to "click," that the paper hit its stride, and that now it is "going places."

Every day the editorial sheets show a healthy list of exclusive news stories published. Circulation is on the increase. Service troubles have been ironed out. Subscribers assure us they are receiving deliveries, like the famous soap, 99 and 44-100 per cent perfect. Advertisers are reporting profitable results. The recent cooking school conducted by The Journal turned out a grand success. All around the county the paper is being quoted and being recognized as a vital and worthwhile element in the community life.

So, this first day of a new month finds us most happy about the situation. Likewise, judging from what civic and business leaders tell us, Santa Ana is thoroughly enjoying its promotion to two-newspaper status.

FOILING THE COMMUNISTS

(From The Santa Paula Chronicle)

THERE are several good ways to save America from Red influences.

One of the best has been chosen by the American Legion post in Santa Ana.

There, in order to scotch the propaganda of Communists who are trying to incite workers and students against the United States government, war veterans have formed a group called the Minute Men.

These Minute Men will not copy Stalin, Mussolini, and Hitler. They will not institute a reign of terror by beating, kidnaping, and killing Red agitators and Civil Liberty Union lawyers. Far from it.

They plan to whip Communism in a straight-from-the-shoulder, hard-hitting American way by holding meetings to expose the Reds as vicious frauds and trouble-makers.

We salute Santa Ana Legionnaires for their patriotic program.

Communist propaganda, as a matter of fact, stands little chance of swaying the minds of mature, clear-thinking Americans.

Its influence is confined mainly to ignorant aliens, green schoolboys, or unfortunate individuals who have a grievance against society.

Nobody in his right senses would want to swap the capitalist government of the United States, with its freedom of thought, religious worship, family ties, and speech, for the Bolshevik despotism of Soviet Russia, where liberty of the individual is virtually unknown.

Nobody with a claim to sanity would care to give up the material advantages of adequate food, clothing, housing, and sanitation that can be found in the United States for the starvation, hardships, and filth of the miserable and misguided U.S.S.R.

American people are not suckers—give them the facts and they'll steer clear of Communism like leprosy.

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

AT BERKELEY a phenomenal athlete from Ohio State university wins four championships at the national collegiate meet and is cheered all the louder by 20,000 people because he happens to belong to the negro race.

Jesse Owens would seem to prove that race prejudice has no place in the minds and hearts of sports-loving Americans.

The next day Alabama Pitts starts his comeback after completing a term in Sing Sing prison by turning in a good performance with the Albany, N. Y., baseball team. And his good showing gets headlines in every newspaper in America.

Alabama Pitts would seem to prove that the public is more than ready to give a helping hand to the man who tries to come back.

In New York, one Joe Louis chops down an ex-champ weighing a third more than himself. Though a negro, he has won plaudits, as far as we can observe, from every quarter.

Yet it is a common notion that the public turns thumbs down on ex-convicts and that race prejudice is all too general.

What is the answer? Are sports lovers more generous than the public as a whole? Or do we save our generosity for sensational and dramatic cases? Anyhow, America's sport fans have set us a good example.

"Could I bother you, Miss Gordon, to take a little dictation when you finish typing your chain letters?"

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Monday, July 1. At no time during his administration has the President looked so rejuvenated and acted so rejuvenated. White House cavalier report he is bubbling over with enthusiasm over the country's reception to his tax message. He regards the message as one of the best in his career. There has been no change in Roosevelt's diet. For fear of increasing weight—due to lack of exercise—the President cannot eat sugar, potatoes and other starchy foods. He particularly dislikes giving up dessert. . . . Andrew Jackson, an examiner at the securities and exchange commission is distinctly related to President Andrew Jackson. . . . The social security act excludes domestic servants, farmers, farm workers and casual labor from those receiving its benefits. This leaves out most Negro workers.

CRACK DOWN SENATOR Bill Borah is reported to be awaiting an opportune moment to crack down publicly on the presidential ambitions of Herbert Hoover. Borah's friends say he feels very strongly that with Hoover as GOP standard-bearer, the party would be doomed not only to defeat but to permanent annihilation. . . . In the last six months the securities and exchange commission has put more than 200 stock dealers out of business. . . . "Cactus Jack" Garner, who has been making vice presidential history by taking a leading role in the scenes of legislative matters, has established another precedent. He is the first vice president to be voted a mileage allowance to and from his home. . . . Bald-pated Donald Richberg is threatening to go the way of another ex-NRA ruler. Don is considering writing a book on his Blue Eagle experiences. Close friends are counseling him against it. . . . Miss Josephine Roche, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, is being strongly urged by liberals for appointment to the new national labor relations board being created under the Wagner labor disputes act. She is proposed for the place now held by Professor Henry A. Miller, who wants to return to his job as head of the economics department of the University of Chicago.

TAX APPEAL JUST a few days before Roosevelt sprang his tax program, a delegation of business men came down from New York to urge the treasury to scale down taxes. . . . Senator Bob LaFollette, leader of the drive to adopt the Roosevelt tax plan this session, would begin increasing income taxes at around $4000. Some of his liberal colleagues urge against this, pointing out that this would make the tax program unpopular with the potent middle classes. . . . They want to begin increasing on in-

Twenty-Five Years Ago

JULY 1, 1910

HAMMONDSPORT, N. Y. — That the aeroplane in its present state of development is far from being a satisfactory engine of war is the conclusion of Glenn H. Curtiss. He has decided that: First, no aeroplane can be made into an efficient war machine unless it is fitted to carry two persons—one to act as pilot and attendant to the motor, and the other to act as gunner; second, the dropping of projectiles is a waste of ammunition without a gun which can be aimed right from overhead; and can carry its missile to the target. . . . Miss Josephine Yoch left yesterday for New York, from which place she will sail for Europe. Miss Yoch will return in November. . . . THE ROYAL BOX King Edward VII was for 26 years grand master of the English Free Masons. King Albert of Belgium has the distinction of being the only one of royalty to have served apprenticeship as a newspaper reporter. . . . SACRAMENTO — According to a statement issued by Comptroller Nye, the expenses for the state government for the fiscal year just closed, were $2,000,000 greater than the preceding year. Warrants drawn for the year totaled $18,753,720. . . . RENO — There is a deadlock in betting on the Johnson-Jeffries fight. Johnson's statement that the contest is an even proposition has caused his admirers to hesitate to put money down at 10 to 6, while Johnson's backers are still holding out for the short end at 2 to 1. . . . They tell us women have no minds; But, no matter what they say, I'm sure they have, because, you see, They change them every day. —Chicago News, 1910. . . . The former should be given reformatory treatment. The latter should be painlessly purged from the social body.

Lemon Juice

Howdy, folks! If you can't get away for a vacation this summer, you can obtain a rustic atmosphere at home by putting bacteria in the drinking water and hiring somebody to ring a cowbell outside your window every night.

So many Santa Ana folks are spending the summer in the country this year that some of them will have to slip back to town every now and then just to get a little fresh air.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES OF CELEBRITIES Adolph J. Harpoon, Villa Park horticulturist, deserves the undying gratitude of each and every one of us. Mr. Harpoon has just perfected, and placed on the market, a self-peeling orange.

A news item points out that there are nearly 2000 cats in Anaheim alone. All we can say is they don't sound alone.

Li'l Gee Gee's pet goat, Rosie, has gone on a diet. She has given up kerosene cans for the summer, and is living on sardine tins exclusively.
